Want to buy property in Hong Kong, but don't know where to start? It's easier than you think. Over five years, Christopher Dillon—a unilingual expat—bought and renovated an office, an apartment and a factory in Hong Kong. Based on this experience he wrote Landed: The expatriate's guide to buying and renovating property in Hong Kong. Landed Hong Kong explains how properties are bought and sold. It introduces the players and the parts of the buying process that are unique to Hong Kong. It profiles the neighborhoods that are popular with expatriates, and outlines alternatives to investing in residential property. And it looks at how to successfully renovate your new property, using case studies with budgets and lessons learned. Landed Hong Kong concludes with a list of resources covering everything from architects to utilities.

For most of the 2nd World War the RAF flew small aircraft into Occupied France at night, landing and taking off in total secrecy. Their mission was to transport agents to and from France to support the activities of the French Resistance and SOE. The chronicle of these operations tells an extraordinary adventure story, full of danger for both agent and aviator. Hugh Verity flew many of the missions recounted in We Landed by Moonlight and was probably the most outstanding pick-up pilot of them all.

Have you ever fallen in love? Does it make you strong, or does it become your weakness? What happens when it suddenly disappears from your life? Manvi Sharma, the creator of Algaav, the number one magazine on social issues in India, is in her office trying to pass the few hours left till her big day. Unable to distract herself, she asks her secretary, Rosy, to call the reporter who had been trying to get an appointment with her the past two months. Ankit Rohatgi, the reporter, had been eagerly waiting for the interview. He arrives at her office to ask all the important questions. Every step that Manvi takes is public, it seems like nothing about her is hidden from the world, but Ankit wants to know what is curtained behind her beautiful eyes. He wants the story of her journey to the top, the untold story.

Sun is ready to leave his village in China for America, the place known as Gum Saan, Gold Mountain. His father warns him, though, that passage will not be easy. Because of the 1882 Chinese Exclusion Act, new immigrants like Sun are detained at Angel Island until they are called to take a difficult oral exam before they can "land" - leave Angel Island and go ashore. On the boat, Sun had studied maps of his village and memorized facts about his ancestors. But as the weeks pass in detainment, the map's compass points swirl in his memory, and Sun worries that he will lose his direction and be turned away. The oil paintings are rich with historical details in this vivid recounting, based on the author's father-in-law's experiences, of a disturbing chapter in Chinese American history.
