Lo/Fisher is praised for its readability and conversational writing style that helps students better understand difficult concepts in Accounting. Lo/Fisher presents the how and why of reporting accounting information from within an easily-understood theoretical framework. Lo/Fisher has a clean layout that engages the reader with a clear writing style using plain English. This text is built on the current International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and incorporates Accounting Standards for Private Enterprise (ASPE) where appropriate. Our philosophy is that when students understand the current standards, they will be able to analyze and interpret changes in the future. "One icy winter's evening in Budapest, a man runs straight into John Taylor as he walks home through the narrow streets.

John falls over into the snow and looks up at the man's face. 'I felt very afraid. Because what I saw was me. My face looking down at me. My mouth saying sorry.' Who is the man, and how will John's life change?
